7.1. What is a reportable matter?

7.1.1. Under this policy you may make a report if you have reasonable grounds to suspect that a Great Southern Bank director, officer, team member, contractor, supplier or other person who deals with Great Southern Bank has engaged in conduct which:

- I. Is dishonest, fraudulent or corrupt;
- II. Is illegal activity;
- III. Is unethical or in breach of Great Southern Bank's policies, standards or guiding principles;
- IV. May cause damage to Great Southern Bank, a team member, or a third party such as unsafe work practices, health risks or abuse of Great Southern Bank's property;
- V. Constitutes an abuse of position;
- VI. May cause financial loss to Great Southern Bank, damage our reputation or be in general detrimental to Great Southern Bank's interests;
- VII. Involves harassment, bullying, victimisation, other than personal work-related grievances as defined in the Corporations Act 2001; or
- VIII. Involves any kind of misconduct or improper circumstances.

7.1.2. Protection is available to whistleblowers who disclose wrongdoing that is made with reasonable grounds to believe it is true, even should the disclosure turn out to be incorrect.

7.1.3. However, protection is not available where the disclosure is:

- I. Trivial or vexatious in nature with no substance. This will be treated in the same manner as a false report and may itself constitute wrongdoing.
- II. Unsubstantiated allegations which are found to have been made maliciously, or knowingly to be false. These will be viewed seriously and may be subject to disciplinary action that could include dismissal, termination of service or cessation of a service or client relationship.

7.1.4. Personal work-related grievances are not included within this Whistleblower Policy framework and in particular, do not qualify for the special protection under the Corporations Act and the Taxation Administration Act (as set out in the Annexures).

7.1.5. Examples of this include interpersonal conflict between the whistleblower and another team member, or a decision about the engagement, transfer, promotion, performance management or termination of the discloser.

7.1.6. However, in certain circumstances, a disclosure about or including a personal work-related grievance may still qualify for protection, for example:

- a) If it includes information about misconduct, or includes or is accompanied by a personal work-related grievance (mixed report);
- b) If Great Southern Bank has breached employment or other laws punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more, engaged in conduct that represents a danger to the public, or the disclosure relates to information that suggests misconduct beyond the discloser's personal circumstances;
- c) the discloser suffers from or is threatened with detriment for making a disclosure; or
- d) the discloser seeks legal advice or legal representation about the operation of the whistleblower protections under the Corporations Act.

7.2. Special protection in certain circumstances

- 7.2.1. Within the broad category of reportable matters, Annexure A and Annexure B describes special protections for whistleblowers who disclose information concerning misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances in relation to Great Southern Bank under the Corporations Act or Tax Administration Act ("Disclosable Matters").
- 7.2.2. Please note that the special protections afforded by the Corporations Act (and Tax Administration Act where relevant) are only applicable to whistleblowing disclosures which meet the definition of Disclosable Matters (as replicated in Annexures A and B). The Special Disclosures apply not only to internal disclosures to Great Southern Bank eligible recipients but also to eligible recipients such as legal practitioners, regulatory and other external bodies and public interest and emergency disclosures.

7.3. Who can I make a report to?

- 7.3.1. Great Southern Bank has several channels available for reporting issues or concerns. For the purpose of this policy to ensure appropriate escalation and timely investigation, we request that reports are made to our Whistleblower Protections Officers as identified below:
  - I. Chief People Officer
  - II. Chief Financial Officer
- 7.3.2. Whistleblowers may also make disclosures to the following eligible recipients:
  - I. Any Board member, Executive or Senior Leader at Great Southern Bank;
  - II. ASIC or APRA (or another Commonwealth body that is prescribed by regulation – there are no other body prescribed as at 1/1/2020); or
  - III. Our internal or external auditor, or actuary (in the case of CUA Health and Credicorp)
- 7.3.3. In order to qualify for the special protection set out in Annexures A and B, you need to make the disclosure directly to one of the above eligible recipients.

Eligible recipients have the role of receiving disclosures that qualify for the special protections set out in Annexures A and B.

- 7.3.4. Please note that disclosures to your legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the operation of the whistleblower provisions in the Corporations Act are protected (even if the legal advisor concludes the disclosure does not relate to a disclosable matter). Whistleblower complaints can also be made via Great Southern Bank's external provider whose details are available on Great Southern Bank's Intranet/Internet and Schedule 1 of this policy. The external provider is a third-party provider who will receive the complaint and escalate according to Great Southern Bank's Policy.
- 7.3.5. The supplier will provide the details of the disclosure to a Whistleblower Protections Officer. Reports may be anonymous, however, if you do provide your contact details, they will only be provided to the Whistleblower Protections Officer with your consent.
- 7.3.6. Note: Anonymous complaints raised to a Great Southern Bank officer or senior leader will be managed as per the Whistleblower Policy and are protected under the Corporations Act as per the special protections set out in Annexures A and B.
- 7.3.7. Before making a disclosure, a Whistleblower may wish to obtain more information. To do this, contact any Whistleblower Protections Officer or seek advice from an independent legal advisor.

7.4. Investigation of reportable matter

- 7.4.1. Great Southern Bank will investigate all matters reported as soon as practicable after the matter has been reported. A Whistleblower Protections Officer may appoint a person to assist in the investigation of a report. Where appropriate, Great Southern Bank will provide feedback on the investigation's progress or outcome subject to considerations of privacy.
- 7.4.2. Each investigation will be conducted in a fair and objective manner even though the process of each case will be determined by the particulars of the matter. Once reported, a Whistleblower Protections Officer or investigator will contact the discloser to confirm receipt of the complaint and to initiate the investigation process. Where a report is made anonymously Great Southern Bank will conduct the investigation based on the information provided. Great Southern Bank may not be able to undertake an investigation if it is not able to contact the discloser (e.g. if a disclosure is made anonymously and the discloser has refused to provide, or has not provided, a means of contacting them).

7.5. Protection of whistleblowers

- 7.5.1. Great Southern Bank is committed to ensuring confidentiality in respect to all matters raised under this policy and those that do make a report are treated fairly and experience no detriment.

- 7.5.2. In particular, Great Southern Bank will ensure that the whistleblower does not suffer the following detriments as a result of making the Disclosure:
- a. Dismissal
  - b. Demotion
  - c. Any form of harassment or victimisation
  - d. Discrimination
  - e. Current or future bias
  - f. Damage to reputation, business or financial position
  - g. Prosecution
- 7.5.3. Examples of actions that are not detrimental conduct are:
- a. administrative action that is reasonable for the purpose of protecting a discloser from detriment (e.g. moving a discloser who has made a disclosure about their immediate work area to another office to prevent them from detriment); and
  - b. managing a discloser's unsatisfactory work performance, if the action is in line with Great Southern Bank's performance management framework.
- 7.5.4. If you are subjected to detrimental treatment as a result of making a report under this policy, you should inform a Whistleblower Protections Officer.
- 7.5.5. Whistleblowers may want the support of an independent counselling service and may contact Great Southern Bank's EAP provider as detailed in Schedule 1.
- 7.5.6. In addition, you may seek independent legal advice or contact regulatory bodies, such as ASIC, APRA or the ATO, if you believe you have suffered detriment.

7.6. Protection of your identity and confidentiality

- 7.6.1. Under whistleblowing legislation, Great Southern Bank has a legal obligation to protect the confidentiality of disclosers. Further, a person cannot disclose the identity of a discloser or information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser (which they have obtained directly or indirectly because the discloser made a disclosure that qualifies for protection).
- 7.6.2. The legal protections for protecting a discloser, or other persons, from detriment in relation to a disclosure are set out in the Corporations Act and the Taxation Administration Act.
- 7.6.3. Subject to compliance with legal requirements, upon receiving a report under this policy, Great Southern Bank will only share your identity as a whistleblower or information likely to reveal your identity if:
- a. you consent;
  - b. the concern is reported to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC), the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA), the Tax Commissioner or the Australian Federal Police (AFP); or

- c. the concern is raised with a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation.
- 7.6.4. If Great Southern Bank needs to investigate a report, it may disclose information that could lead to your identification, but it will take reasonable steps to reduce this risk (in order to support disclosers and protect them from detriment) including:
- a. all personal information or reference to the discloser witnessing an event will be redacted;
  - b. the discloser will be referred to in a gender-neutral context;
  - c. disclosers may choose to use anonymous email addresses;
  - d. where possible, the discloser will be contacted to help identify certain aspects of their disclosure that could inadvertently identify them; and
  - e. disclosures will be handled and investigated as per policy.
- 7.6.5. Please note that Great Southern Bank's ability to undertake an investigation may be hampered if Great Southern Bank is not able to contact the discloser (e.g. if a disclosure is made anonymously and the discloser has refused to provide, or has not provided, a means of contacting them).
- 7.6.6. Any disclosures of your identity or information likely to reveal your identity will be made on a strictly confidential basis.
- 7.6.7. The following measures and mechanisms for protecting disclosers from detrimental acts or omissions will be applied:
- a. an assessment will be conducted on the risk of detriment against a discloser and other persons (e.g. other team members who might be suspected to have made a disclosure), which will commence as soon as possible after receiving a disclosure;
  - b. support services (including counselling or other professional or legal services) that are available to disclosers as provided by Great Southern Bank's EAP provider;
  - c. considerations for protecting a discloser from risk of detriment—for example, allowing the discloser to perform their duties from another location, reassign the discloser to another role at the same level, make other modifications to the discloser's workplace or the way they perform their work duties, or reassign or relocate other team members involved in the disclosable matter;
  - d. educating the Senior Leadership, Executive and Board to be aware of their responsibilities to maintain the confidentiality of a disclosure, address the risks of isolation or harassment, manage conflicts, and ensure fairness when managing the performance of, or taking other management action relating to, a discloser;
  - e. in the event a discloser lodges a complaint that they have suffered detriment, the complaint will be investigated as a separate matter by Whistleblower Protection Officer who is not involved in dealing with that particular disclosure and the investigation findings will be provided to the Board Risk Committee); and

- f. in the event detriment has been found to have occurred, Great Southern Bank would investigate and address the detrimental conduct (which may include: taking disciplinary action, or allowing the discloser to take extended leave, develop a career development plan for the discloser that includes new training and career opportunities, or offer compensation or other remedies.)

7.6.8. A whistleblower may seek compensation or other remedies through the courts if:

- a. They suffer loss, damage or injury because of a disclosure; and
- b. Great Southern Bank failed to take reasonable precautions and exercise due diligence to prevent the detrimental conduct.

7.6.9. A discloser can lodge a complaint with Great Southern Bank via the Whistleblower Protection Officers, or through to a regulator such as ASIC, APRA or ATO, if they believe that their confidentiality has been breached, or if they believe that they have suffered a detriment. A discloser may also seek independent legal advice.

7.7. Protection of files and records

7.7.1. All files and records created from an investigation will be retained securely.

7.7.2. Unauthorised release of information to someone not involved in the investigation (other than senior managers or directors who need to know to take appropriate action, or for corporate governance purposes) without your consent as a whistleblower will be a breach of this policy.

7.7.3. Whistleblowers are assured that a release of information in breach of this policy will be regarded as a serious matter and will be dealt with under Great Southern Bank's disciplinary procedures.

7.7.4. The Corporations Act gives special protection to disclosures about breaches of that Act, provided certain conditions are met – refer to Annexure A for further details. The Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth) (Taxation Administration Act) also gives special protection to disclosures about breaches of any Australian tax law, provided certain conditions are met – refer to Annexure B for further details.

7.8. Protection of individuals mentioned in a disclosure

7.8.1. Great Southern Bank will apply the following measures to ensure fair treatment of individuals mentioned in a disclosure (where applicable):

- I. disclosures will be handled confidentially, when it is practical and appropriate in the circumstances;
- II. each disclosure will be assessed and may be the subject of an investigation;

- III. the objective of an investigation is to determine whether there is enough evidence to substantiate or refute the matters reported;
- IV. when an investigation needs to be undertaken, the process will be objective, fair and independent;
- V. a team member who is the subject of a disclosure will be advised about the subject matter of the disclosure as and when required by principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and prior to any actions being taken—for example, if the disclosure will be the subject of an investigation; and
- VI. a team member who is the subject of a disclosure may contact Great Southern Bank's EAP provider as detailed in Schedule 1.

7.9. Duties of team members in relation to reportable matters

7.9.1. It is expected that team members of Great Southern Bank who become aware of, or suspect on reasonable grounds, potential Disclosable Matters will make a report under this policy or under other applicable policies.

7.10. Anonymity

7.10.1. The whistleblower may or may not wish to remain anonymous, and Great Southern Bank will guarantee the protection of identity to the extent of the law.

7.10.2. A discloser can choose to remain anonymous while making a disclosure, over the course of the investigation, and after it is finalised. A discloser can refuse to answer questions that they feel could reveal their identity at any time, including during a follow up conversation. It is suggested that a discloser who wishes to remain anonymous should maintain ongoing two-way communication with Great Southern Bank so that Great Southern Bank can ask follow up questions.

7.11. Temporary relocation or leave of absence

7.11.1. In the rare event that the whistleblower's identity cannot remain anonymous due to the nature of the investigation, the whistleblower may also seek temporary workplace relocation or a leave of absence during the investigation.

7.11.2. Requests for relocation should be made to the Whistleblower Protection Officer, who will then make all reasonable efforts to accommodate the request, with consideration to business requirements.

7.12. Appeals

7.12.1. If the whistleblower believes that they have not been provided with the appropriate protection throughout this process, then they may appeal directly to the Whistleblower Protections Officer for independent review of the allegations and process.
