

Foreign Cheque Deposit into a Great Southern Bank Account

ATTENTION: PAYMENT OPERATIONS

IMPORTANT: Before completing this form, please ensure that you read and understand the below.

1. Cheque processing times can take between 65 to 120 days (Generally 90 Days).
2. You remain responsible for ensuring your cheque is received by us either by post or at a Branch.
3. Your cheque will be processed by our head office and then sent to our cheque processing service provider.
4. The exchange rate is the rate provided by our cheque processing service provider on the date of processing.
5. You remain liable for cheque dishonours even after the processing period has passed.
6. You agree to the customer declaration below.

Note: If you send your cheque to us by post, we recommend you send it via a method by which you can track its location, such as registered post or express post. Alternatively, we recommend you deliver it by hand by attending a Branch.

Customer Declaration

I/We confirm and acknowledge that;

1. I/we authorise Great Southern bank to attempt to process my/our foreign currency cheque, convert it to Australian Dollars (AUD) at the applicable exchange, and deposit the converted amount into my/our Great Southern Bank account.
2. I/we have confirmed with the cheque drawer there is not an alternative way to receive these funds such as an international telegraphic transfer (wire transfer).
3. Great Southern Bank currently accepts foreign cheques in USD, CAD & GBP foreign currencies only. Currencies accepted are subject to change and without notice.
4. The cheque processing time is a minimum of 65 days and may take up to 120 days (Generally 90 days). Any postage delays, processing delays or high volumes of cheques received by Great Southern Bank may extend this processing time.
5. If the cheque can be successfully processed, I/we will not receive access to the funds until relevant the processing period has elapsed.
6. To meet its obligations under anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws, Great Southern Bank may be required to request or collect additional information about this cheque. I/we acknowledge that any request for further information may delay processing.
7. Depending on the method of processing, funds may be placed on hold in my/our account during the processing period or deposited after the processing period has elapsed. Processing methods are determined by the risk profile of the transaction.
8. Whilst a cheque can be deposited into an interest earning savings account, depending on the method of processing used there is no guarantee that interest will be earned by me/us on the proceeds of this cheque until the processing time has elapsed.
9. Exchange rate applied will be the rate available to Great Southern Bank on the date the foreign exchange conversion occurs, which may be different to the processing date. The exchange rate may differ from widely published wholesale rates, including rates shown on XE, card schemes or Convera's public site.
10. The time difference between the processing date and the date that foreign currency conversion occurs could be up to 120 days apart depending on the method used to process my/our cheque.
11. Exchange rates can vary dramatically between the date Great Southern Bank received the cheque, the date Great Southern Bank processed the cheque and the date the foreign currency conversion was performed. Great Southern Bank will not guarantee an exchange rate with me/us or notify me/us in advance of the applicable exchange rate. Postage delays, processing delays, global shifts in currency markets and other delays can impact the exchange rate that I/we receive.
12. I/we authorise Great Southern Bank to deduct a fee of between $15 and $65 (depending on processing method) in accordance with our Schedule of Fees at gsb.com.au/fees. Fees are subject to change.
13. In the event of the cheque dishonouring, I/we remain liable to repay Great Southern Bank for any funds relating to the dishonoured cheque, even after funds have been released to me/us. Great Southern Bank may debit my/our account, even if this causes the account to become overdrawn.
14. It is my/our responsibility to confirm with the cheque drawer that funds received are authorised by the cheque drawer before spending the funds.
15. The attached cheque/s are not stale and will not become stale during the processing period of up to 120 days.
Note: majority of cheques have a six (6) month validity before becoming stale unless otherwise specified on cheque.
16. The recipient name/s on the cheque and the name/s of the account holder match. Jointly named cheques must be deposited into a joint account.
17. There is a genuine and legitimate personal or business connection/relationship between me/us as the depositor and the cheque drawer.
18. Great Southern Bank reserves the right to refuse or reject to process a foreign cheque for any reason and without justification. Acceptance of a foreign cheque for processing is done so on merely an attempt to process the cheque on your behalf and does not guarantee that it will be successfully processed.
19. I/We remain liable for my/our cheque until Great Southern Bank receives it either in a Branch or by post and bears no responsibility for cheques that are lost under any circumstances.
20. I/We have endorsed the back of the cheque with my/our signature.
21. Once a cheque has been submitted for processing, Great Southern Bank cannot return the cheque to me/us.

You agree that you have read and understood all of the important information & Customer declaration.
